

O love is a crooked thing. There is nobody wise enough to find out all that is in it. For She would be thinking of love. Till the stars had run away And the shadows eaten the moon. Ah, penny, brown penny, brown penny, One cannot begin it too soon. Keats.

Nouns] affections, character, qualities, disposition, nature, spirit, tone; temper, temperament; diathesis, soul, heart, breast, bosom, inner man; heart's core, heart's strings, heart's blood; heart of hearts, penetralia mentis; secret and inmost recesses of the heart, cockles of one's heart; inmost heart, inmost soul; backbone. passion, pervading spirit; ruling passion, master passion; furore; fullness of the heart, heyday of the blood, flesh and blood, flow of soul. energy, fervor, fire, force.

[Adjectives] affected, characterized, formed, molded, cast; attempered, tempered; framed; predisposed; inborn, inbred, ingrained; deep-rooted, ineffaceable, inveterate; pathoscopic; congenital, dyed in the wool, implanted by nature, inherent, in the grain. [Adverbs] in one's heart; at heart; heart and soul

Fig. 17.2.2 Back of Wine Label