

STUFFINGS OR FORCEMEAT

- NAME

another thing of the same name (and noun) de-identifies the object. That is why no two advertisements have the same phrase-jingle-type thing.

SPECIFICATIONS SPECIFICALLY:

nomenclature; naming; nomination, baptism; onomatopoeia;
name; appellation, designation title; heading; caption; denomination; by-name, epithet.
style, proper name; namesake. name, call, term, denominate designate, style, entitle, clepe, dub, christen, baptize, characterize, specify, define, distinguish by the name of; label (mark) . be -called;
take the name of, bear the name of, go (or be known)

Hues

-different combinations in different languages.

like how Mandarin has a word for both light green (ching)
and dark green (lü)

And the word 'play' (in all different languages)

Combined words: schadenfreude, german for joy at another's sorrow.

Fig. 2.6.8 Page Excerpt from Edmonds Cooking Book